

SHARANYA in the news!

India Pilgrimage 2006:

Visiting Kamakhya Mandir during the festival of Ambubachi...Jai Maa!

This is a place not many foreign visitors or devotees manage to see, although it is a major shakta pitha or seat of the goddess' power here on Earth, not to mention a beautiful temple.

The festival is at one intense and sublime, letting one potentially access and experience gross, subtle and causal levels of engagement with Her all at once.

We at SHARANYA have been blessed to have many guides and helpers in our journey to Maa in this place. We offer gratefulness and give thanks for their welcoming presence, spirit of devotion and willingness to share their beloved Mother with us.
